SPEED ROUND 1: "TELL ME ABOUT YOURSELF"

For the next 5 minutes, split into groups of 2 people and practice your answer to a "Tell me about yourself" question from a school interview.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR INTERVIEW DAY

- Keep it between 1-2 minutes
 - Do not restate your application information
 - Show, Don't Tell
 - Tie in your love for your field and motivations

FINE TUNING ADVICE

- Do not make your answer sound rehearsed.
- Find what experiences made you passionate while talking about them.
- Figure out how to weave your ideas together

SPEED ROUND 2: "WHY MEDICINE?"

You have:

- 2 minutes to think
- 5 minutes each to answer

GOGOGO!!!

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR INTERVIEW DAY

- DO NOT SAY "I like helping people" or similar generic answers, make it specific for your career
- Let your (intrinsic) personality shine through with your answer
- No extrinsic answers (money, power, respect)
- Tie in your interest

OTHER SAMPLE QUESTIONS

The mother of a 12-month-old believes that vaccines cause autism and that she believes that immunity should be all natural. Her child is currently unvaccinated and is at risk for diseases that are otherwise nonexistent for the vaccinated community. Can parents refuse to immunize their children? What do you do as the physician?

OTHER SAMPLE QUESTIONS

Your patient struggles with alcohol dependence and needs a liver transplant. Would you add this patient to the transplant waiting list?

NEXT GBM: MARCH 29, 2023

THANK YOU
FOR COMING!
